Retired Durham Police Chief Joseph Everett, 54, was among five people charged Wednesday in connection with a second-degree embezzlement investigation, Raleigh authorities said. Another woman who was a code enforcement officer in Raleigh, Shirley Needles, 65, is charged with first-degree embezzlement. Everett was arrested in December on an unrelated charge of driving while his license was revoked, according to the Durham Police Department. Everett is being held in Durham County jail without bond. Everett resigned from Durham Police in December after he was charged with driving while his license was revoked. Durham police officer Deon Trawick faces charges of voluntary manslaughter and assault on a government official. Trawick is accused of fatally shooting a man Jan. 28. Trawick was charged with voluntary manslaughter in the shooting. The mayor of Raleigh, Carol Worley, and Kenneth DeBruin, president of the Raleigh City
